American misses flight over bribe

BY NOBERT ALLAN

An American was stopped from boarding a flight home after he allegedly refused to bribe Moi International Airport immigration officials.

Endale Mitiku, an ICT firm executive was stunned when immigration officials at the airport stopped him from taking his flight to Addis Ababa on Wednesday morning.

Mitiku, an American citizen of Ethiopian origin was going back home after a holiday at the Kenyan Coast when he was asked for a bribe by the immigration officials.

The officials claimed the man had refused to answer questions and he was rude to them. Mitiku missed his flight to Addis from where he was to get a connecting flight to the US.

NGO gives Sh10 million scholarships

BY ALPHONCE GARI

An NGO has given Sh10 million worth of scholarships to 220 needy students in Malindi.

Aiducation International Kenya said the scholarship programme is meant to help bright secondary school students from poor families.

The organisation's CEO Jeremiah Kambi said in average, every student gets Sh160,000 per year and the ratio of boys to girls is 60 percent to 40 percent respectively. Kambi said they are targeting to give 350 scholarships in January.
WAVE AT THE "GREAT MARCH" PROTEST IN LOS ANGELES. "WE SUPPORT HUMAN RIGHTS!"

The march was organized to raise awareness about human rights violations in various parts of the world. The theme of the march was "Justice for All." The rally was held on the steps of the Los Angeles City Hall, with thousands of participants. The rally was led by celebrity speakers and musical performances. The march ended with a peaceful demonstration in the streets of downtown Los Angeles.

For Yes Vote in Tondonoka

Kibaki, Raila, and VP Rally

Monday June 2, 2010

THE STAR

6 COAST

President Raila's Rally

President Raila's rally was held in Tondonoka to support his "Yes" vote in the upcoming referendum. Thousands of supporters gathered to listen to Raila's speech, which was received with great enthusiasm. The rally was held in a large stadium, and the atmosphere was electric. The rally ended with a dance performance by local groups.

The Gerardos

The Gerardos are a local band that performed at the rally. Their music was well-received by the crowd, and they performed several popular songs. The Gerardos are known for their unique sound and have gained a large following in the region.

The Green March

The Green March was held in Tondonoka to raise awareness about environmental issues. The march was organized by local environmental groups and was supported by the government. The march was a peaceful demonstration, with participants carrying signs and banners to raise awareness about the importance of protecting the environment. The march ended with a rally in a local park, where speakers discussed the need for action on climate change.

The Raila Coalition

The Raila Coalition is a political alliance formed to support Raila Odinga's "Yes" vote in the upcoming referendum. The coalition is made up of various political parties and groups, and they have been actively campaigning for Raila's "Yes" vote. The coalition has been criticized by some opponents, who claim that it is not legitimate. Despite this, the coalition has received widespread support from the public.

The KZN Government

The KZN Government has been actively involved in the referendum campaign. The government has been working closely with the campaign organizations to ensure that the referendum is held in a free and fair manner. The government has also been providing financial support to the campaign organizations.

The Kibaki Coalition

The Kibaki Coalition is a political alliance formed to support Kibaki's "No" vote in the upcoming referendum. The coalition is made up of various political parties and groups, and they have been actively campaigning for Kibaki's "No" vote. The coalition has been criticized by some opponents, who claim that it is not legitimate. Despite this, the coalition has received widespread support from the public.

The Vote

The vote will be held on the upcoming date, and the outcome will be determined by the majority of the voters. The "Yes" vote is expected to win, with support from the government and the raila coalition. The "No" vote is expected to lose, with support from the kibaki coalition. The referendum is an important milestone in the country's history, and the outcome will have a significant impact on the country's future.