D: ESSAY AND MOTIVATION

Please imagine you are celebrating your 60th birthday together with your family and friends. The atmosphere is very friendly, suddenly your grand-daughter jumps on your lap and asks you the following question: "Grandfather / Grandmother, what have you done in your life?" use space provided below.

I was born in the year 2005 in Kisumu. When I was one year old I was taken to a kindergarten school in Wajamba called Tumani. In class one I learnt in Wajamba Primary school to class eight and did my KCPE and got 364 marks. I received a calling letter from Asumbi Girls from Homabay due to lack of enough money I knew that I had little chance to go to school so I applied for scholarship in Aiducation and in form four I got A (Plain). Due to the good grade I was called in Kenyatta university to study law and got a degree.

As a lawyer I was able to achieve a lot of things like fighting poverty. I was able to do that using the technology and that's the internet. I formed an application in the internet that whoever needed a job from our agency would come to my office and other offices all over the country. Many people appeared and they were interviewed and we got people who would help the agency go further. Later, we looked for those who were really working hard and looked determined and were given loans to do something in their lives and we would send people to watch over their progress and after them being able to live in high standard they would pay the loan and it would help someone else.

After being successful in my career I decided to build a centre in Mombasa with good and enough materials for rehabilitating the drug addicts and after the rehabilitation they got chances to learn and achieve their goals which they aspired so much. Now almost all the youth in the centre are having their own jobs and I am proud of them. Due to my assistance I was able to reduce a lot of the youths from the streets of Mombasa.
