I was a boy who I was given birth to a ~~humble~~ family which was faithful like a dog. I had four siblings who were industrious as an apt. they obeyed their parents as per the fifth commandment. my parents were poor so we lived a life of hard to mouth but we thanked the Almighty for his protection. In school we were chased almost every day because of a fee debt. so that problem made my siblings leave going to school. I continued my education upto class eight and I scored ~~300~~ three hundred and sixty eight marks in my Kenya certificate of primary education. I was called at Kiwira township secondary. I went to that school while targeting to be a teacher. I learned at that school and scored a mean grade of B+. I was admitted in shanzu training teachers college. I learned in that college and graduated be a teacher.

After that I was given a job to teach in Misomani primary. I was a too much professional teacher upto I wrote a story book namedly The blossoms of the savannah. My fellow teachers were green-eyed of me but they worked harder so that to be like me. I achive to produce the best student in my county in the national exam. Also my class emerged the bes in our county. I was given wonderful gifts from various people because of that. I was very praded of my self.

After being a teacher for some time, i retired from being a teacher. but because of my hard work I constructed some schools namedly New vision academy and The school of hope in my location. I thanke god for sending me such a long Journey and giving me such wisdom. Besides making me like a happy life with my relatives.
